The story starts with the when the author Somerset Maugham's saw a lady and starts recalling their first meet. The lady read the book of author and write a letter to the author by saying that your style of writing is good. and the author wrote a letter to her and said thanks to her.

Again the lady wrote a letter to the author that she was passing through the Paris on Thursday. So she wants to meet him for the lunch at Fogot's restaurant. author received the letter. Author has eighty francs. that was well enough to lead his life till the end of this month. He thought if bill was fifteen francs then if i stop drinking coffee for next two week i can manage easily. and then author said yes to the lady.

He will meet her at Fogot's restaurant on Thursday at half past of twelve [12:30] and the author was expecting the young lady but she was not young and not attractive as well they entered in the restaurant.

author said her to order what she wants to have for the lunch. She said I don't eat more than a one food for the lunch and then she wants to have a ~~little eat~~ salmon fish but it was not in the menu then the author asked to the waiter for salmon. He said we have and I prepare it if you want to have something while it was being cooked. She wants to have a little caviar.

Author starts checking the menu. He was searching for the cheapest dish on the menu. The cheapest dish was mutton chowp. He ~~order~~ ordered the mutton chowp that lady says mutton chowp was heavy food for the lunch it should not eat for the lunch.

After ordering food they kept talking about the Art and literature and story writing. Then the question came of drink. She then doctor suggested her to drink the white wine. Champagne. Author ordered champagne for her. After having all of this author asked her if you would like to have something she a one giant asparagus which she also wants to eat that dish from long ago but I can't due to it was expensive.

She kept ordering all expensive dishes and then had only 80 eighty francs with him and then she starts thinking that what should I do if the bill was more than 80 francs if I should say I lost my wallet or I ask for that lady or I should keep my watch and then I come back pay you. he was thinking like that.

Then the headwaiter came with basket full of peaches and then she knew that it was not the season of peaches it must be expensive at this time. but still lady took the peaches from the baskets and then she ordered coffee for herself and one coffee for her with ice cream after all of this the bill was seventy seven francs, and he gave three francs tip to the waiter.

After having the lunch she booked a cab and she left. and then has zero francs in his pocket. now more when she sees her again her weight was one thirty two kg. and then though I had my revenge.

Nissim Ezekiel (1924-2004) is the Indian Jewish Poet, actor, script writer, and critic. His father was the Principal in many colleges and mother also the Principal at school. So the teaching was in the blood line so he is good at life and literary as well. The Night of the Scorpion was the poem shows the modest love of a mother toward the children and it is the melancholic poem.

On that day it was heavily raining outside and the poisonous scorpion entered into the the Poet's house and bite the Poet's mother and hidden beneath the sack of rice. the scorpion stung the mother with his flesh diabolic tail

The venom of the scorpion starts spreading into the Poet's body. the the nightmarer are gathered like a swarms of flies and started whispering the name of God hundred times and started asking about the supernatural power and they were being believing the evil powers

Then the neighbours came with the candles and lanterns to search for that poisonous scorpion while searching. For then their own shadow was looking like a poisonous scorpion on the mud baked walls. and one said if the poison stops spreading in the body then there is chance of ~~the~~ leave.

They started giving their own opinion about the bite of the scorpion. it may be the curse of your previous birth that you suffering it today someone said it may be the cure u suffered it today your features has less problems like that they started giving their own opinion.

The Parent's father was a scriptural nationalist he don't believing this evil or supernatural powers he started applying the powders and herb and hybrid to reduce the pain and he pour some kerosene on the toe of the mother and fired it Pelt's saw his mother flaming in front of him. he felt very bad.

Then the holy man arrives the magician he perform few magic tricks on the mother but it was also no result.

After suffering of twenty hours the sting of the scorpion comes to end. After all of this mother's first word was thankfully that scorpion choose me to bite not my children. It shows how openhearted that mother was. This story shows that love of a mother towards children.
