PART- C

- 12 "La Belle Dame Sans Merci" was written by the John Keats. He was famous poet by his days and he was having only 26 years of short lifespan. The poem is a ballad and contains 12 stanzas with a rhyme scheme of abca. Each stanza contains 4 lines.

La Belle Dame Sans Merci which is in the French phrase which means a beautiful lady without pity merci. In this poem it is a conversation between the poet and soldier (knight) who fell in love the lady who is mysterious.

In first 4 stanzas the poet asks the knight why he is so sad and wandering near lake. Once the knight was very sad and was wandering near a lake where no grass are green and where no birds sing. And also he sweat and pain in his face and his face looks like a pale lily. and remaining stanzas the poet tells the story what had happen to him. He saw a beautiful lady, she was so admiring and he fell in love with her. She also fell in love with him when they saw each other and he took her in house both ride on the horse and spend whole day. She sang songs of fairs and he gifted a garland for forehead and bracelet to hand.

They both enjoyed a horse ride. She took him to her love name 'Elefant gift' she offered him by giving a sweet roots, wild honey and manne dew for him.

She talked for him and he ~~stent~~ slept off. There he saw a dream. In that dream he saw a pale king and movies who were wounded very badly. They were telling him to run away from her because she was very bad and because of her beauty they were also admired and died. Their lips were dried up and was telling 'la, Belle, Dam Sans Merci' means the beauty beautiful without merci'. When he woke up and opened his eye he was not there in the cave but his a lying on cold hills alone. So he was her ~~was~~ very sad and wandering near a lake and no birds sing and no grass are green.

This shows a two sides of women character which means beautiful outside and pity inside

10 The luncheon written by Somerset Maugham. The poet was living in Paris at a 'Latin Quarter' he writes a novel, poet, story. This lesson starts when he meets a lady for a first time before a 20 years.

Because of his story the lady writes a letter to him and he reads that letter and thanks her again. A same lady writes a letter that she was going London but before going she wants to chat with him. He said yes because he doesn't want to tell no to lady and he says yes. She also said upcoming Thursday at half-past twelve she will meet him at a Foyot's restaurant, which was more expensive restaurant which he did not think about it to go. Also, he said yes and they went. She told she not eat more than one thing to lunch and he was light happy. But unfortunately she was not a girl she was 40 years woman. Her teeth were many and large. She was more talkative and he was leading her. They took a menu and she wanted a salmon but there is not salmon in the menu also he asks a waiter and he says yes and he told bring it her and waiter asked anything else until it cooks.

She said yes I take a curry which was too costly and he ordered himself a cheapest thing in the menu that is mutton chop. Both their dishes came and she was kept on talking about the lectures, art and music again the waiter ask for a drink she said white wine is very good for digestion but I don't take because my doctor strictly said not to drink anything also she ordered a Chamagne to her and another ordered half bottle of Chamagne to her and water to him self. Both eat their lunch and she says you eat heavy food that is not good for health see me I eat only one thing she says. Again she ordered asparagus which he like the most but can't could not offered himself she eats the asparagus the melted butter was touching his nose and kept quite. Waiter asked coffee for both he says yes, 2 coffee and 1 icecream which they both are enjoying that the waiter bought a peaches which was not season of that, that means it will be more costly. She was kept on ordering expensive things and he was very much tensed about the bill. He thinks if it will more money He would ask the guest or he leave his watch if there is less money or he act like he lost his money.

He was thinking, but finally the bill arrives and he felt 3 ^{brakes} ~~sents~~ as a tip. They both came out and ~~the~~ again tell him to not eat much for lunch he should learn from her how to eat lightly. She called take and went off but he don't have any money to lead his life for a month.
