Twenty years ago poet lived in a pairs in a Latin Quarter apartment. A lady read his poem and write a letter to the poet your poem are amazing and poet return write a letter thanking her. A lady write letter to poet again would give a luncheon on this coming Thursday I would be passing through a pair. (poet said) On the Foyate restaurant which was the expressive and all the (French) it was the French expensive hotel.

The poet could not say to a lady it would means. Poet would not through of going there and he would earn money to keep body and soul happy together. He was having only eighty annas, and the bill should not go more than fifteen annas. He would cut off his next two weeks coffee and how he could manage himself.

The poet through the lady will be not more pretty and she was forty years lady. And he was prepared to be a good listener. And she would should a large mouth and all her teeth it looked like a man. Poet took the menu and said order what you want. She said I don't eat more than one thing for the luncheon.

He replied no order what you want she took the menu and she the dishes and called the waiter do you have salmon it was not the salmon season and waiter a we have a large delicious salmon and she order it. Until it come she ordered another ~~cavies~~ caviar and the salmon arrived.

The poet pick the menu and order the cheapest dish on the menu that was mutton chop. She replied now days people eat more than thing for the luncheon. After the having set salmon and caviar she called the waiter from her eyes and she order champagne.

She said (doctor)* these French ~~white~~ white wine are so light, so doctor had said to me to have it.

She asked the poet what would you to drink he order the water for himself. She orderd the asparagus for her self and enjoyed her luncheon. He said what would you order for the the drinks she said no I donot eat more than one thing for the luncheon and an ice-crean and coffee for me he also order coffee for himself.

The poet was worried now about the bill how much it would be come. He was thinking that the bill would cross then she would keep his hand inside the pocket and make a dram that his purse has be stolen otherwise he would ask the guest for to pay the half bill or keep his watch afterwards he pay all he will carry it.

The waiter with a false smile on his big face he brough a large beautiful peaches and he would pick out and had it she said now only you have a meat and eaten too much how would you eat this. She see me how a I eat only one thing for the luncheon. I have moring coffee and diner at the night.

He left with only Three annas which was kept for the waiter tips and her eyes were on that money only and she said that how humours are you and sat on the tin with filled tears in her eyes.

The poet said the revenge that been taken now she was 21 21 (twenty one stone) / 294 pounds / 134 kilogram.

11] Nizziam Ezekiel poem Night of the Scorpion which tells the story of Indian villages and there cultural. How mother love her children.

Night of the Scorpion is written by the "Nizziam Ezekiel" (1952-1988) which was the first poem of the Nizziam Ezekiel. This poem contains eight stanza and the poem line are three and eight lines. It does not contain any rhyme scheme.

The poet starts the story from his childhood which his mother was bitten by a scorpion. When it was heavily raining.

The dark night raining heavily his mother went to bring a rice from the granary where the scorpion was bit. When his mother was sunk by the scorpion and went beneath a sack of rice. To get a shelter from the heavy rain.

The neighbour with large number of candles and lanterns went to their home and to see that what happened. All of them were trying to catch the scorpion to stop the movement of the scorpion. Which would increase the poison on the blood on his mother.

All neighbours that it was her sins of the last birth or the eye of the evil one which would have been burnt now and it would be stopped her not to take to her next birth. All were trying to find the scorpion and trying to kill it but it would not be found anywhere.

Poets eyes turned towards his father. His father was a skeptic and rationalist he does not believe in anything and he was trying powder, herbs and the holy man was chanting some mantras and trying to control her pain.

Finally his father poured a porcupine on her toe and released her from the pain.

After the twenty hours of crying and recovery of his mother. His mother was thankful for the god that she saying that the scorpion has chosen her not her children.

This how ~~her~~ a mother care for her childrens in many different ways. Nizzam Ezekiel tells in this poem that how mother sa sacrifices her life her children.
